

WEST INDIES CRICKET BOARD INC.

BIOGRAPHY

Deryck Lance Murray, CMT

Deryck Murray was first selected for the West Indies Cricket team while still at Queen's Royal College. He went on to represent the West Indies in 62 Test matches between 1963 and 1980. He first played for Trinidad & Tobago at the age of 17 and was Captain of Trinidad & Tobago from 1976 to 1981. A wicketkeeper-batsman, he was also Vice-Captain when the West Indies team won cricket's first two World Cups in 1975 and 1979. In 1963 and 1975 he was awarded the Trinidad & Tobago Sportsman of the Year award and was also honoured in 1975 with the Chaconia Gold Medal for his many outstanding achievements.

WEST INDIES CRICKET BOARD INC.

Deryck graduated with BA (Hons) in Industrial Economics from the University of Nottingham, England and read Economics and History at Cambridge University (Jesus College) where he was awarded a cricket Blue and was Captain of Cambridge University in 1967.

He served in the Foreign Service of Trinidad & Tobago during the period 1978 to 1989. The major part of this period took him to the United Nations in New York, where he was Vice-Chairman of the Fifth Committee and Chairman of the Committee for Programme & Coordination.

He joined the financial services industry in England in the early '90s and was the Affinity Marketing Manager of one of the largest insurance companies. On his return to Trinidad at the beginning of 2001, he took up a post at the Head Office of Guardian Life of the Caribbean where he is Vice-President, Employee Benefits Department.

He currently is the President of the Trinidad & Tobago Cricket Board and is a member of the Technical & Development Committee of the Trinidad & Tobago Football Federation.

Deryck and his wife Maureen were married in 1967 and have two sons, Michael and Nigel, who reside in England.